High's expands Service in Baltimore County, Opening Store in Towson

Baltimore, Maryland (January 10, 2018) — The newest High's convenience store opened for business on Thursday at 6207 N. Charles Street, Towson.

This was a former 3 Bay Garage Service Station that was remodeled into a full service convenience store. It has six fueling points and will carry a wide selection of items including High's Heritage

Ice Cream among other High's favorites. Their food offerings include pizza, hand dipped ice-cream, country smoked bacon breakfast sandwiches among many other menu items. It will also feature roller grill items.

The store is open for business and offering many grand opening specials:

- Any size coffee and breakfast sandwich for $1.99
- $.99 pizza with any fountain drink purchase
- A free single scoop of ice cream with ANY hand dipped ice cream purchase
- Roller Grill Meal Deal—any 2 roller grill items, small bag of Utz chips and any size fountain drink

At High's we strive to be fast, fresh and friendly!

About High's

In 1928, the High's brand was born— the ice-cream store chain grew rapidly throughout the Mid-Atlantic States. At one time there were more than 500 locations, making High's the largest ice-cream store chain in the world!

In 2012, Carroll Independent Fuel Company acquired High's and began to build off of the strong heritage that everyone knows and loves. Today, High's is a chain of 46 convenience stores run by a team of 500 individuals.
